Some his charge, always closing his reproofs with the of the correspondents of the German papers have been studying the nature of the resources which trance ciso ays. One o them, writing to the Co ogne Gazette, thin is that he has cliscovered. at east a portion of the secret of the astonis ring recuperative power o'the country in the a most universal economy practice, in French ami les. Among those of property, he finds that the 'acies, instead of six si crobes each year, are content with two. The course carriage gives way to a sing e one, and the spare nome is employed on the arm. At night, two or three amos are izntec instead of six or seven; wine zone a wood is substituted or bottled wine; the ackey 188 recome a sarceser; neasure journeys and the four weeks visit to laren laken are given un, and the Summer is spent in the country, "waica," says the uni oscobic German observer. "Is not on y more economica, but in the ong ren more agreea) e ane more avorab e to ami-'y i e." These are su ficient y simble cetails, I they are very significant, and, to our thinking, very touching. The French say "it; is the first step that costs." But it is not so in "ami y economy. The first step may be very easy, and I tose that to div pain u and difficult. The surrender of little uxuries, the change of betty habits these things demand a renewal or resolution 5 at every moment, and they are vie ced on v to a very stern necessity, or to a sincere and pro-ounce
